GLENN R. SCHIECK NAMED TO LITERACY VOLUNTEERS OF ROCHESTER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Rochester, New York, August 17, 2017 – Harter Secrest & Emery LLP, a full-service business law firm with offices throughout New York, announced that Glenn R. Schieck, an attorney in the firm’s Immigration practice group, has been named to the board of directors at Literacy Volunteers of Rochester.

Literacy Volunteers of Rochester is a leader in the cause of literacy. With a small staff and a large pool of trained volunteers, the organization assists adults in improving their reading, English language, math, and digital literacy. Literacy Volunteers of Rochester advocates for all people to attain literacy skills so they can fully participate in their community as citizens, parents, consumers and workers.

As an immigration attorney, Schieck assists companies, universities, and health care institutions seeking immigrant and nonimmigrant status on behalf of individuals in diverse fields and specialties. Prior to beginning his legal career, he held a variety of roles in the field of Human Resources, in both the financial services and software development industries.
