AUTUMN J. YOUNG APPOINTED TO PRIMETIME585, INC. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Rochester, New York, February 7, 2022 – Harter Secrest & Emery LLP, a full-service business law firm with offices throughout New York, announced that Autumn J. Young, associate in the firm’s Health Care and Nonprofit Organizations practices, has been appointed to serve on PrimeTime585, Inc. Board of Directors.

PrimeTime585, Inc. is a nonprofit entity that uses sports as a bridge to impact the community. They partner with local sports teams as part of their charitable programs to foster youth involvement in the community. In 2021, PrimeTime585, Inc. provided Thanksgiving dinners to 607 families in the Rochester area and donated over 1000 toys and coats to patients at the Golisano Children’s Hospital, including replenishing the hospital’s Sickle Cell Unit toy chest.

Young focuses her practice in the areas of health care and nonprofit organizations law and has experience performing due diligence reviews, preparing legal documents, and conducting legal research and analysis. She earned her B.A. from the State University of New York at Geneseo and her J.D., magna cum laude, from Albany Law School.

Harter Secrest & Emery’s Health Care attorneys work with health systems, hospitals, nursing homes, clinics, physicians and other health care facilities, agencies, and professionals to provide guidance on day-to-day operational, business, and regulatory issues involving patients, medical staff, medical records, financing, reimbursement, tax, contracts, corporate compliance, government investigations and the myriad of other matters that impact a health care organization. The firm also has significant experience in managed care and health care acquisitions, reorganizations, and affiliations.

The attorneys on our Nonprofit Organizations team advise clients through every stage of their life cycle – entity formation, governance, building partnerships and integrating organizations – as well as on day-to-day operational issues relating to general employment, real estate, fundraising, financing, investments, transactions, regulatory compliance, and other matters. We represent a full spectrum of nonprofit, tax-exempt, philanthropic, and religious organizations such as health systems and hospitals, educational institutions, foundations, trade, industry and professional associations, cultural organizations, religious groups, affordable housing, and other human services providers.
