

As a member of the firm's Immigration practice group, Mark assists in the preparation of employment and family-based petitions. He conducts research and prepares documents to help obtain work visas and permanent residence status for clients and to assure compliance with regulations.

While attending Harvard Law School, Mark served as a member of the Board of Student Advisers, as a Student Fellow at the Petrie-Flom Center for Health Law Policy and Bioethics, and as the Executive Online Editor for the Harvard Law & Policy Review.

Prior to law school, Mark obtained his PhD in Philosophy from Purdue University, where he taught undergraduate courses in philosophy. He also previously served as the Campus Visit Coordinator in the Admissions Office at Houghton College.

Honors and Awards

- Harvard Law School
 - Board of Student Advisers
 - Executive Online Editor, Harvard Law & Policy Review
 - Articles Editor, Harvard Journal on Legislation
 - Winner of the 2019 LGBTQ Writing Prize
 - Summer Academic Fellow (2018 and 2019)
- Purdue University
 - PhD granted with highest distinction
 - Brewer Graduate Research Assistant in Applied Ethics
 - Teaching Assistant
- Houghton College
 - Psychology Department Exceptional Senior Award
 - Psi Chi, National Psychology Honor Society

MARK R. SATTA

ASSOCIATE

msatta@hselaw.com

tel: 585.231.1332

fax: 585.232.2152

Education

Harvard Law School, J.D.

Purdue University, Ph.D.,
Philosophy

SUNY Brockport, B.A.

Houghton College, B.A., summa cum laude

hselaw.com

Rochester ■ Buffalo ■ Albany ■ Corning ■ New York City
Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.