

Ted Townsend advises hospitals, health care providers, facilities and organizations in connection with operational, compliance and governance matters, including corporate compliance, HIPAA, fraud and abuse, professional licensure and misconduct issues, the implementation of internal compliance programs, patient-related issues, medical staff issues and psychiatric commitment issues. A large portion of Ted's practice is devoted to assisting physician practices and other health care entities with various matters including business acquisitions and sales, ACO formation and participation, and issues relating to the formation, governance, ownership, operation, transfer, and termination of such entities. Ted also counsels clients on contracting matters, including reviewing and negotiating managed care agreements.

Ted also provides counsel to health care providers in Federal (OIG and DOJ) and State (MFCU and OMIG) audits and investigations, including counseling clients with respect to Medicare and Medicaid voluntary self-disclosures.
